

Student Athletic Code of Conduct at Celebration Lutheran School

Athletics at Celebration is a privilege earned by the students. In order to participate, the athlete must obey the following guidelines...

1. An athlete must have a full day of attendance to participate in a practice or game that day. Please see full attendance policy below.
2. Students must maintain a C grade in all subjects to be able to play. If they are getting a failing grade, they may stay on the team and practice with the permission of the coach, teacher, and parents. Grades will be checked at the midquarter and the end of the quarter for eligibility.
3. Students have 3 weeks to bring up their grades or show improvement at the teacher's and parents' discretion. If the athlete's grades are not improving they will be removed from the team.
4. Students receiving a detention will follow a 3-step procedure:
1st detention: the student will serve the detention

2nd detention: the student will serve the detention, and the student will not be able to participate in the next practice or game

3rd detention: the student will serve the detention, the student will not be able to participate in nor attend the next practice or game

4th detention: the student and parents will meet with the teacher and principal
5. If a student is consistently disrespectful to teachers, coaches, and parents; they will be removed from the team.
6. Students must attend practices to earn playing time in the game.
7. Students shall maintain and display a Christian example at all times.
8. Students will be suspended for 2 games for extremely poor sportsmanship or using foul language, this will be decided by the coach and parents.
9. Students will encourage their teammates. One person cannot win alone and a loss is not the fault of one person; everyone is a team together.
10. Students will demonstrate respect for opponents and officials before, during, and after contests.
11. Students will give complete effort on the court at all times.
12. Have fun. Exhibit good sportsmanship. Let the light of God shine.
