Farewell Mrs. Randazzo

It is with a heavy heart that I share that my family and I are moving to the Chicago area after this school year due to my husband accepting a new position. Although we are excited for this professional opportunity, our hearts are definitely sad to leave an area and a community that we love so much. The CLS staff's level of love, support, and experience is hard to match anywhere else. We love our CLS family and the support you've all given this year. I will miss my students and all of the memories we've created this year but I trust that the teachers they will have next year will be more than capable in creating an exciting and engaging classroom environment for them. I am so thankful for the lessons I am taking with me on this new adventure and remain so appreciative of the community here at CLS.

Thanks, Mrs. Randazzo
