Accreditation Update

April 15th was our final day with the NLSA validation team. Although this was a long process, it was well worth the time and effort. I am so excited to announce that they are recommending us for NLSA, pending further review.

"The charge of the Validation Team was to review, validate and evaluate the evidence your institution has provided and relay those findings to NLSA."

Based on our findings from the review of evidence, our Validation Team recommends that CELEBRATION LUTHERAN SCHOOL APPLETON, WI be accredited, pending further review by your District Accreditation Commission and final action by the NLSA National Accreditation Commission."

Thank you for helping us accomplish this distinguished achievement!
